Preparation for Worship (Music Playing)
Greetings and Salutation: Pastor Myers
Welcome and Invocation: Sis. Deborah Thomas
The Call to Worship: Sis. Ethel Collic

Leader: Gracious God, we have gathered separately, yet together to worship You. Almighty God, we come into Your presence, although seated and situated in various places, yet still together because we know that where two or three are gathered in Your name, you are in the midst. Loving Father, you are our creator and redeemer. You are the author and finisher of our faith.

People: Lord Jesus, we come into Your presence, collectively, we come into your presence, faithfully, we come into Your presence in unity to worship You!

Let The Redeemer’s Name Be Sung, through Every Land by Every Tongue”*

SUMMARY OF THE DECALOGUE

Sis. Kara Johnson Hear what Christ our Savior saith, thou shalt love the Lord thy God with all thy heart, and with all thy soul, and with all my mind. This is the first and great commandment. And the second is like unto it: Thou shalt love thy neighbor as thyself. On these two commandments hang all the law and the prophets.”

Dear Lord, we raise our gifts to You, trusting in the covenants. You promised us that when we give our best to You, You will give back even greater. We understand that tithing is an act of faith and a testimony to Your faithfulness. Lord, we are grateful for Your continued excellence in our lives, so we offer unto You our best, believing that You, LORD God, are our strength and power, and You will keep us covered in every situation and supply every need so that there is no lack; You will make our ways perfect. Amen.
